15th Annual Rodeo Queen Clinic

Lasso your dreams and goals to become the next Miss Rodeo ----- by attending an informative and educational rodeo queen's clinic.

This clinic is open to queens, queen pageant contestants and prospective candidates, parents, coaches, rodeo queen judges and pageant committee members. Age is not a restriction or a requirement.

Instruction on the 3 main categories of competition: Horsemanship, Appearance and Personality. Focus on rodeo knowledge, interviews, and personal safety.

The MRNA clinic has had great success and would love to help you accomplish your goal! Past attendees include past and present state title holders, as well as our own McCook, Nebraska, Miss Rodeo America 2003, Lori Bortner.

Do not bring your horse.

A rodeo queen wardrobe swap will take place on Saturday evening at the Lincoln County Fairgrounds location. WE WILL HAVE LOTS OF ROOM! Bring that outfit that you're tired of or buy a new outfit for that next rodeo queen contest.

A short church service will be held Sunday morning.

Clinic sponsored by:
Miss Rodeo Nebraska Association, Inc.

www.missrodeonebraska.org

The clinic will open with registration at 8:30 a.m. CST on Saturday, March 10, and will conclude in the early afternoon on Sunday, March 11.
