FALL 2008

NEBRASKA'S FIRST LADY OF RODEO

MISS RODEO NEBRASKA 2008 KRISTEN SCHOTT

"OH, THE PLACES YOU WILL GO!"

"I can sleep when I'm dead" has become my theme for this year's busy rodeo season!! It has been a struggle to sit down for a moment & write this letter. It is even harder to recall the million different places I have been in the last four months! I continued my trek across the country to the UNL Rodeo. Go Huskers!! The UNL Rodeo Team put on an outstanding rodeo & I was so glad to see some of my college friends. From there I went to North Platte for the Bluegrass Festival sponsored by Mentzer Oil Company. I had never listened to Bluegrass before & I can honestly say I enjoyed the day. I even got to request "Man of Constant Sorrow" by the Soggy Bottom Boys (apparently that is Bluegrass!!) I returned home & made a visit to the Homestead in Norfolk. I really enjoyed visiting with the residents & their families as I put on a minifashion show. I had a crazy week in Omaha with Karla Maddux at the Agency 89 Modeling School. I modeled on a runway in 6-inch spike heels!! I almost died & marked that moment as the most dangerous thing I have done all year. I think that everyone there got a kick out of my near-death experience, so I suppose it was worth it. I was also in Omaha for the Berkshire-Hathaway Stockholder's Meeting. I was invited by Paul Fredrickson of Fredrickson Construction. Let me tell you, if all business meetings are that much fun, count me in! The day didn't start out quite like I had planned it. I was supposed to meet Paul at 6:00 a.m. so we could make the movie, which was one of the highlights of the day. However, I got a phone call from Paul at 6:45 a.m. & I was still lying in bed! I freaked out & ran around my room like crazy trying to get ready. Luckily all I missed was the movie & I still got to participate in everything. I had pictures taken with everyone from the Fruit of the Loom Guys to the Geico Lizard. I also stopped by the Justin Brands booth & went shopping. The guys there were nice enough to give me a pair of limited edition pink goatskin Justin boots! They had everything at this meeting including a real Texas Longhorn which I got to ride! And as the adventurous woman that I am, I was able to sample some odd cuisine. I ate escargot & shockingly enough—snails are delicious! After Omaha I went to Arizona for the Miss Rodeo Arizona Pageant. I got to spend a day with my Grandma Schott in Sun City West where we went shopping for sunglasses. I drove a golf cart around town—those things go a lot faster than I thought they could. We had so much fun together & it was good to spend some time with my family. I then went to Payson, Arizona for the Pageant. I stayed in a mansion of a house (it had an elevator in it)! Arizona is such a beautiful state & I had so much fun with my queen friends. We had a very eventful week that included: a trip to the Grand Canyon Railway, walking to the Grand Canyon in 100 degree weather, riding four-wheelers double, & roasting tootsie rolls over an open fire. I then had the opportunity to attend a Myler Bitting Seminar that was held at Lucky D Tack in Gretna, NE. I learned a lot & I was so glad to see my friend Deb Dyer again! She has sponsored me with some wonderful pink tack to support the Wrangler "Tough Enough to Wear Pink" cause. She has everything from pink spurs to pink blankets, buckets, and polo wraps. Thanks for her support of me and a great cause. June kicked off with the Cattleman's Ball where I was privileged enough to be one of their models during the fashion show (no heels this time). The profits of the Cattleman's Ball go to support local cancer research. The Cattleman's Ball was close enough that my Mom and Dad, & Ed and Linda Axford of Axford Construction were able to attend. We had a lot of fun & we left right before the rain came down. It was a great event & I had the chance to hang out with my cowgirl buddy McKinley Wilson who was gracious enough to donate a beautiful yellow & turquoise custom cowboy hat for the cause! The next week took me back to North Platte for NebraskaLand Days & the Buffalo Bill Rodeo. I had so much fun during those 10 days that I don't even know where to start. It was an amazing event overall & I had a blast with Tammy Moorhead MTRN 2007. It is very hard to not have fun when you are with Tammy! The highlight of the week, besides the rodeo, was probably the All-Male Cake Bake or the Prime Rib Feed at Scout's Rest Ranch. I had a group of wonderful ladies chaperone me during NebraskaLand Days. They did an awesome job & I thank them for their time during such a busy week. I also got my first motorcycle ride when I was doing a radio spot for Jody's Auto sales who donated an awesome pickup for me to drive during my reign. I am so thankful for this major donation! And of course, we cannot forget the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant that took place during this time. All of the girls who competed for the MRN 2009 and MTRN 2008 titles did an awesome job! Congratulations to Amy Amack MRN 2009 and Kristin Kohmetscher MTRN 2008. You are both going to do a great job! After NEBRASKALand Days, I had just enough time to bring my horse home, repack, & head for Hastings to judge the Miss High School Rodeo Nebraska Contest. They had some wonderful ladies vying for the title. I had a great time hanging out with my good friends Miss Oregon Trail Rodeo Miranda Dodson & Kendra Hansen. We decided that as queen's we never get to be happy homemakers so the best way to appease our craving to cook was to buy an Easy Bake Oven. We baked cakes & cookies in my hotel room for about 4 hours & only burned one thing! I made my way to the Northeast corner of our state for the Days of '56 Rodeo in Ponca. Although I got rained on every night of the rodeo, I had fun. The Ponca Rodeo Association puts on an awesome rodeo & I saw my first ever arena race. It got pretty wild as riders did a relay race around the arena in the mud. After Ponca I headed to Crawford. Luckily I only got rained on once during the rodeo. I not only had fun at the rodeo, but I also got to climb a butte. I am terribly afraid of heights, however, I made it to the top & it was worth it. I also got a personal guided tour of Fort Robinson. I was filled in on everything from the names of the Fort's horses and mules to the ghosts that allegedly roam the grounds. I even got to see a buffalo herd. The Crawford 4th of July celebration was amazing & the scenery was beautiful. I left the final rodeo performance on the 4th & drove all night to arrive home around 5:30 a.m. My next trip took me to Canada for the Calgary Stampede. Of course, I had to fly there & I always come back with an interesting story when I fly—this one is definitely a dandy!! I woke up at 3 a.m. so I could be to the airport in Omaha by 5:30 a.m. because my flight left at 7:30 a.m. I waited in line at United Airlines for about an hour. Then the computer wouldn't accept my confirmation number, so I waited in another line for about half an hour where they told me they gave this flight to Northwest Airlines, conveniently located at the other end of the airport. I sprinted over to their desk praying there wouldn't be a line. They had already closed the gate & the computer wouldn't let the desk agent override it. Just my luck!! I missed my flight & had to wait around Omaha until my flight left at 3:30 p.m. I finally arrived in Canada later that evening, & I had so much fun at the Calgary Stampede. This is definitely one of the best orchestrated events. My favorite part was the chuck wagon races. I couldn't wait to come home for the Madison County Fair & Rodeo. It was nice to see family, friends, & sponsors again. I had the honor of carrying the American Flag all three nights of the rodeo. However, I had to leave immediately after the rodeo on Friday night because I had to be in Colorado Springs for the ProRodeo Hall of Fame Inductions. I rolled in to Colorado Springs at around 5:30 a.m., but I was up and smiling in a couple of hours to see the Buffalo Bill Rodeo inducted in to the Hall of Fame. What an honor for this rodeo & for Nebraska. After a nap I went to the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo & helped with the mutton bustin'. I was very excited to go to Cheyenne Frontier Days. Nebraska's Big Rodeo is one of my favorite rodeos of all time. I was happy to be back in Burwell. When I became Miss Burwell Rodeo, the town welcomed me with open arms & it was no different when I returned as Miss Rodeo Nebraska. A big thanks goes to Rob & Pat Burnham for hosting me and a big thanks to Jerry and Tammy Rowse for the horse they provided. The most memorable point of the weekend was when the clown roman rode on the back of the queen's horses! Additionally, all of the queens auctioned off a kiss at the 4-H livestock sale to support the local 4-H program. My kiss was purchased for an 8-year-old boy who wouldn't even touch me, let alone kiss me!! I told him he would regret it in 10 years, but he didn't believe me. I recently returned from the Miss Rodeo Kansas Pageant held in Dodge City, KS. I had so much fun hanging out with Miss Rodeo Kansas, Jenna Nelson, & the contestants. The Dodge City Rodeo is one of the best rodeos I have ever been to and the Kansas hospitality was definitely appreciated. It has been the craziest summer of my entire life, but it has been a blast. I am so thankful for all of these opportunities & I am having the time of my life. I cannot wait to see where my rodeo road leads to next!

I want to thank everyone who put time and effort in to making the 2009 Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant one of the most memorable experiences of my life. The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Association, sponsors, and judges made sure we were well taken care of from the accommodations to the words of encouragement each contestant received throughout the contest. As a competitor, it was wonderful knowing that we were there to have fun and the only stress that could occur was what we put on ourselves. I hope and pray that Morgan Marshall, Holly Soucie, and Anita Moorhead return next year. What an outstanding group of girls. It was amazing how the four of us became so close in four short days. We were all fast friends from the beginning. The first night we were enjoying each other's company so much that we came up with a plan to have a slumber party, but quickly thought better of it since we knew if we did that we wouldn't get any sleep!! Every day we would help one another get ready when assistance was needed and every night we would stay up and listen to each other's speech to build our confidence when it came time to present them. For me, speeches are the hardest part of competition due to the fact that they are scripted. Memorization is my downfall, but I have improved and the morning of the speeches when I stepped on to the stage to give my speech, I knew I wasn't standing there alone. My Mother, who passed away three weeks prior to the competition, was there to make sure I didn't mess up. It was as though she was urging me to keep going so I wouldn't stumble on a word and lose my place. If you believe in God, yourself, and your abilities, you can do anything. I proved this by continuing to compete when I had just suffered the greatest loss of my life thus far. My Mother said "Don't let me be your downfall and if being Miss Rodeo Nebraska 2009 is what you want, then go for it". I would also like to pass on a word of advice that my Father gave me a long time ago. "Live life with no regrets". To do this, you must be determined. Determination builds character. Having character makes you the person that you are. I was amazed the night I was crowned Miss Rodeo Nebraska 2009. As I sat in that arena I realized where my determination had led me—straight to the top. The shock of it all still has not completely settled in, however, settled or not, I feel as though I have hit the ground running. I have been at the Grand Opening of the Golden Spike Tower in North Platte, the Seward 4th of July Celebration, and part of the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs. I have been very blessed with the people I have met through my adventures thus far. I earned my "oats" in Colorado Springs when three little girls came up and started firing questions at me. I was delighted to tell them what I knew and they seemed satisfied with my answers. It's times like these that make a Rodeo Queen proud to have her job and to teach people about rodeo and what makes it whole and strong as not only a sport, but a lifestyle. In closing I want to thank all of the Mothers and Fathers who support us through our endeavors. I also want to thank friends that encourage us and committees and volunteers that make being a representative of rodeo possible. Without any of these important aspects, I wouldn't have been able to dream and do what I do. All in all, I am proud to represent my family and friends, my community, my state, and this nation as Miss Rodeo Nebraska 2009. Take Care and God Bless!!

Amy Amack—Lady in Waiting Miss Rodeo Nebraska 2009

Well I am still on cloud nine from being crowned your Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska 2008. I want to thank all of you involved in the contest. It takes a lot of work and you are a very awesome group of people. I want to thank MRN 2008 Kristen Schott and MTRN 2007 Tammy Moorhead—you two really helped us have fun and enjoy the days during the contest. I know my year will be busy and I am looking forward to meeting new people and learning new things as I promote rodeo in this great state. I have been attending rodeos and queen contests and have enjoyed meeting new people and especially have enjoyed the smiles and hugs I receive from the children. Children are the best supporters of the future of rodeo so I feel we have to get them "hooked" now. I will never forget one moment at a rodeo, they were playing the National Anthem and two little boys were sitting on their dad's horse when one of them turned to the other one and said "Take your hat off, it's the National Anthem!". It was very cute and heartwarming. I was also able to attend the Miss High School Rodeo Nebraska Pageant Luncheon where I met some new friends and chatted with old friends as well. After Hastings, I attended the National Day of the Cowboy celebration in Ainsworth. Wow that was a joy. MRN 2009 Amy Amack and I were the center of attention. Everyone was very interested in the job we do to promote rodeo. We spent a late night singing Karaoke and woke up the next morning to ride in the parade. We spent the rest of the day at the official site talking to people and watching presentations. Thank you to my host family, Ken and Ruth O'Hare, for opening their home to me! My next appearance was at my home county fair. I was so proud to attend the fair as Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska because that is where I got my start. My neighbor who got me hooked on horses and my first horse club leader where grinning from ear to ear. Next I traveled to the neighboring county fair which was a ringing wet experience. It started raining right after they announced the new queen and princess. I went right to my trailer and put on my old boots, jeans, and my yellow rain gear and worked the arena. It was a blast running through the rain and the mud!! I learned I wasn't only a "fair-weather" queen. That's all for now. Hope to see you down the road.

NOTES FROM MRNA PRESIDENT MARDEE SWANSON

It seems like it should be May 30. I am not for sure where the summer has gone, but it most certainly disappeared in a hurry. Many compliments to the pageant committee's, style show committee, luncheon committee, and all who were involved with the pageant for the Miss Rodeo Nebraska 2009 and Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska 2008. A special Thank You to Jerry Hoff and his helper Jody Smith who did an outstanding job with the new photogenic concept. Kristen MRN 2008 and Tammy MTRN 2007 were kept very busy from the time NEBRASKALand Days started until it was over, and they both made us very proud. Congratulations to our Lady-In-Waiting MRN 2009—Amy Amack from Chadron and Kristin Kohmetscher our 2008 Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska from Lawrence. Several changes were made this year with all positive outcomes; the evening style show was very well attended and I believe it is a change that will stay. A special Thank You to the honor and recognition that you gave to "The Golden Girls" Betty Priel, Sharon Halligan, Karen Troyer, and myself for our combined participation of over 100 years with the Buffalo Bill Rodeo Queen Pageant and the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant. We were so surprised and felt very overwhelmed, just a very special moment in our lives. The July meeting was small in attendance, but much appreciation to the ones that came. The by-laws were passed, and now we are up-to-date on them. The "Prep and Polish" for Kristen was held August 22nd and 23rd at the home of Ted and Lolly Klug. A special Thank You to the Klugs for their hospitality and to Carl and Kathy Wilkinson for putting it all together. As we prepare for fall, the annual meeting and election of officers will be in North Platte October 12, at the LaQuinta Inn at 3:00 p.m. We are encouraging everyone to bring at least one new person to this meeting and introduce them to the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Association members. October 18th will be the date for the Send-off celebration for Kristen, we hope that you will all attend. It is always a wonderful evening. I sign off with grateful thanks and appreciation to each of you for your continued effort in building the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Program and we will see you October 12.

Mardee Swanson, MRNA President

2008 WLD WEST RODEO QUEEN CLINIC

This year's clinic was held at Becky's Hall of Celebration in North Platte March 8th and 9th. The Clinic was hosted by the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Association and was to feature Miss Rodeo America 2007, Ashley Andrews, but due to the flu she was unable to attend. So all of the participants had the pleasure of spending time with our own 2007 MRN Erin Robbins. She shared her past year with the girls and the knowledge she had gained. She presented appearance, knowledge, speech, interview, and horsemanship to the girls and parents. We also had guest clinicians Paul Cleveland, Brent Larreau, Ron Moorhead, and Bill Redinger. The girls learned about Rodeo rules for each of the events, a stock contractor's view of the Rodeo Queen and her responsibilities, the importance of horse care, and the effects of the horse slaughter bill that passed last year and how it has affected the equine industry. They also learned personal safety and why we all must be diligent and aware of every situation when we are traveling to different locations. We had a special visit from a modeling agent from Omaha, Karla Maddux. She presented ten steps to making a good first impression and making it last. We had 16 participants and quite a few parents. The pageant committee served the food again and that was delicious. Door prizes were handed out the last day and Jerry Hoff and his wife gave each girl a keepsake photo for their participation. Sunday morning Jan Deatrich came and shared her music and ministry with us. Thanks Jan, it was very enjoyable and inspiring. Thank you to all the members, committees, and participants for making this another successful year!

Please join us next year—March 7th and 8th.

"THE WAVE OF A RODEO QUEEN"

SHE RACES AROUND THE ARENA,
AS THE AUDIENCE CHEERS AND SCREAMS.
SHE SMILES A SMILE AND THE RODEO STARTS, WITH THE WAVE OF A RODEO QUEEN.

THE HORSES STOMP IN THE CHUTES,
A LITTLE GIRL LOOKS UP AND DREAMS.
OF A TIME WHEN SHE'LL MAKE THAT RIDE,
AND SHE WAVES TO THE RODEO QUEEN.

MANY THINK THAT HER JOB IS OVER,
AS SHE RIDES OUT THE ARENA GATE.
SHE ADDED SOME CLASS TO THE DAY,
WITH HER BEAUTY, STYLE, AND GRACE.

MOST DON'T KNOW OF THE HOURS SHE'S SPENT,
PROMOTING THIS RODEO.
RIDING IN PARADES AND GIVING INTERVIEWS,
WORKING HARD WHEREVER SHE GOES.

SHE EDUCATES THE PUBLIC,
A SPOKESWOMAN OF THE BEST SORT.
WHO DISPELLS THE RUMORS AND MYTHS, ABOUT AMERICA'S NUMBER ONE SPORT.

SHE CAN RIDE A HORSE LIKE THE WIND,
A MASTER AT HORSEMANSHIP.

Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant

Wrap up

The rip-roam' rotn'-tootn' 2008 Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant concluding with the crowning of Amy Amack, Miss Rodeo Nebraska 2009, and Kristen Kohmetscher, Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska 2008, was a great success. Four days of competition in areas including horsemanship, speech, knowledge, and general appearance were highlighted by the fun-filled events of the pageant. Horsemanship was held on a sunny Nebraska afternoon at the Buffalo Bill Arena. State Queens entertained the crowd with stories from their travels while the judges tallied points. The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Association Queen's Luncheon was a cool place to have a delicious lunch and put your hand in the air to support the live auction. Proceeds from the auction will help our current reigning 2008 Miss Rodeo Nebraska, Kristen Schott, to continue her travels and compete for the title of Miss Rodeo America in Las Vegas, NV in December. The North Platte Hostess Queen's Speech Breakfast was the site for the farewell to Tammy Moorhead as Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska 2007, and the crowning of the new 2008 Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska, Kristin Kohmetscher. We will really miss Tammy, but we know Kristin will do her best to fill the void left by Tammy. Those attending enjoyed breakfast and the speeches given by our competing Miss candidates. Thirteen lovely out-of-state queens, Miss Rodeo America 2008-Amy Wilson, local area queens, and our own Lil' Cowgirls made the pageant style show "Puttin' on the Glitz" complete with their lively foot stepping to "Puttin' on the Ritz". This colorful style show, which was moved from a brunch to a "Glitzy" evening event rivaling a professional production, was a hit with everyone who attended. Vendor booths, a silent auction, and a raffle for a painting donated by Sandy Meyer enabled attendees to do some early Christmas shopping or indulge themselves by purchasing that "special" item. The crowning of Miss Rodeo Nebraska 2009 was held during the Wednesday evening performance of the Buffalo Bill Rodeo. The point spread used to choose the winner in each category was very close. All of the contestants were commended on their competition during the pageant. We welcome Amy Amack as our new Miss Rodeo Nebraska 2009. We wish our current reigning queen, Kristen Schott MRN 2008, good luck and safe journeys as she continues to represent our State and the sport of rodeo. GO GIRL!

A big "THANK YOU" goes out to all of our 2008 pageant and event sponsors. You are the reason that our pageant is the "Best in the West!"
